SCHEDULE

NORTHERN TERRITORY OF AUSTRALIA

Subordinate Legislation No. 25 of 2006*

Youth Justice Regulations

I, EDWARD JOSEPH EGAN, the Administrator of the Northern Territory of Australia, acting with the advice of the Executive Council, make the following regulations under the Youth Justice Act.

Dated 12 July 2006.

E. J. EGAN
Administrator

By His Honour's Command

S. J. STIRLING
Treasurer
acting for the
Minister for Justice and Attorney-General

* Notified in the Northern Territory Government Gazette on 26 July 2006.

PART 1 – PRELIMINARY MATTERS

1. Citation

These Regulations may be cited as the Youth Justice Regulations.

2. Commencement

These Regulations commence on the commencement of the Youth Justice Act 2005.

PART 2 – CERTAIN MATTERS PRESCRIBED FOR ACT

3. Serious offence

For the definition of "serious offence" in section 39(7) of the Act, an offence under or against each of the following is prescribed:

- (a) section 54, 55(1), 62, 66(2), (3) or (4), 67, 68, 96, 110, 111, 125B(1), 127(1), (2) or (3), 134(1), (2) or (3), 154, 162, 163, 165, 166(1), 168, 170, 175, 176, 177, 179, 180, 181, 192, 192B, 194, 195, 196(1), 201, 211, 212, 226B(1), 228(1), 239, 241, 242, 244, 246, 247 or 252 of the Criminal Code;
- (b) section 189A(1) of the Criminal Code in the circumstances mentioned in section 189A(2)(b) of the Code;
- (c) section 213(1) of the Criminal Code in the circumstances mentioned in section 213(6) of the Code;
- (d) section 6(1) or (2) or 8(1) of the Misuse of Drugs Act;
- (e) section 5(1) of the Misuse of Drugs Act (but not in the circumstances mentioned in section 5(2)(a)(iv)) of that Act;
- (f) section 7(1) of the Misuse of Drugs Act in the circumstances mentioned in section 7(2)(a) of that Act;
- (g) section 9(1) of the Misuse of Drugs Act in the circumstances mentioned in section 9(2)(a), (b) or (d) of that Act.

4. Performance of service as compensation

(1) A youth who performs service in accordance with an order under section 89(1)(b) of the Act satisfies the amount of compensation specified in the order at the rate of $12.50 for each hour of service performed.

(2) If a higher rate is prescribed by regulation 14 of the Fines and Penalties (Recovery) Regulations for the Fines and Penalties (Recovery) Act, that rate applies instead for this regulation.

PART 3 – COMMUNITY WORK ORDERS

5. Application of Part

This Part applies in relation to a youth who is subject to a community work order.

6. Definition

In this Part:

"supervising officer" includes:

- (a) a probation officer; and
- (b) the person nominated as the project supervisor for section 97(2) of the Act.

7. Functions of supervising officers

(1) The following are functions of a supervising officer:

- (a) to supervise a youth or youths as directed by the Director;
- (b) to satisfy himself or herself that the person who attends to perform work under a community work order is the youth named in the order;
- (c) to report to the Director on matters the Director requires, including the attendance record, the work attitude and the conduct of a youth when performing work under a community work order.

(2) It is also a function of a supervising officer to give evidence or provide a report in court proceedings against a youth for a breach of a community work order.

8. Youth must attend for work

(1) The youth must attend to perform work under a community work order at the place and times specified:

- (a) in the court order; or
- (b) by the youth's supervising officer.

(2) The youth must not leave the place without approval from the supervising officer.

9. Exemption from attending for work

(1) The youth may apply to the Director for an exemption from attending for work under a community work order for all or part of a day.

(2) The Director may exempt the youth if satisfied reasonable grounds exist.

(3) An application for exemption must be made not less than 24 hours before the day on which the youth is to attend.

(4) The Director may, in a particular case, approve a shorter period within which an application may be made.

(5) The Director may require the youth to provide information or evidence the Director considers appropriate in support of the application.

(6) A youth who is exempted from attending:

(a) is not taken to be performing work under the order for the period exempted; and

(b) must continue to attend under the order until the full number of hours have been worked.

10. Youth not to be affected by alcohol or drug

The youth must not:

(a) report for work under a community work order while under the influence of alcohol or an illicit drug or substance; or

(b) use or consume alcohol or an illicit drug or substance while at work or during a rest or meal break.

11. Supervising officer may order youth to cease work

(1) A supervising officer may direct the youth to cease work under a community work order for the day if satisfied the youth is:

(a) under the influence of, or has used or consumed, alcohol or an illicit drug or substance; or

(b) otherwise in breach of the order.

(2) The youth must leave the place of work without undue delay.

12. Director may hold inquiry

(1) If a youth is directed under regulation 11 to cease work, the Director may inquire into the circumstances in which the direction was given.

(2) For the inquiry, the Director may require the supervising officer or youth to provide information about the circumstances in which the youth was directed to cease work.

13. Youth may be suspended

(1) If the Director is satisfied that a youth has breached a community work order, the Director may, by notice served on the youth, suspend the youth from attending to perform work under the order.

(2) The suspension remains in force until the youth is dealt with under section 121 of the Act.

(3) The notice may be served by:

(a) delivering it to the youth personally; or

(b) posting it to the youth at his or her last known place of residence or business.

14. Youth who fails to attend for work due to illness

(1) Subregulation (2) applies to a youth who, because of illness, does not attend at the time specified to perform work under a community work order.

(2) The youth must, within 72 hours after the time at which he or she was required to attend, give the Director a certificate, signed by a medical practitioner, confirming the youth was medically unfit to perform work under the order at the time.

(3) The Director may allow further time for the youth to provide the certificate.

15. Youth must not damage work-related items

The youth must not intentionally damage, deface or otherwise harm any equipment, material or other matter supplied, or on which the youth is working, when performing work under a community work order.

16. Protective clothing

(1) If the youth is supplied with, and directed by a supervising officer to wear or use, protective clothing or equipment, the youth must wear or use the protective clothing or equipment while performing work under the community work order.

(2) When performing work under the order, the youth must wear suitable footwear.

(3) For subregulation (2):

(a) closed shoes is the minimum standard for suitable footwear; and

(b) the youth must wear any protective footwear that is provided.

17. Travelling time

(1) Subregulation (2) applies if the youth is required to report to a supervising officer at a particular place and, on reporting, is transported to or directed to report at another place for the performance of work under the community work order.

(2) The reasonable time spent travelling to and from the place of work is counted as time worked by the youth under the order.

18. Rest and meal breaks

(1) A youth required to work for a full day of 8 hours under a community work order is entitled to the following breaks:

(a) a 10 minute rest break in the morning;

(b) a meal break of one hour;

(c) a 10 minute rest break in the afternoon.

(2) The time spent in the breaks is counted as time worked by the youth under the order.

19. Youth injured through work

(1) Subregulation (2) applies if a youth is, because of injury sustained through work performed under a community work order, unable to perform or complete work under the order that the youth would otherwise be expected to perform or complete.

(2) The time that the youth might reasonably have been expected to spend on that work had the injury not occurred is counted as time worked by the youth under the order.

20. Circumstances in which work taken to be performed

- (1) Subregulation (2) applies if:
 - (a) a youth attends at a place in accordance with regulation 8(1) to perform work; and
 - (b) the youth's supervising officer is not present at the place within one hour after the time specified for the youth to attend; and
 - (c) no alternative arrangements have been made by the supervising officer.
- (2) The youth:
 - (a) is taken to have performed work under the community work order for the number of hours scheduled for the youth to perform on that day; and
 - (b) is not required to remain at the place.

21. Supervising officer must not obtain personal benefit

(1) A supervising officer must not obtain a benefit, directly or indirectly, from any work performed by a youth under a community work order.

(2) Subregulation (1) does not apply to a benefit obtained only as a member of, and in common with other members of, the community.

PART 4 – ALTERNATIVE DETENTION ORDERS

22. Application of Part

This Part applies in relation to a youth who is subject to an alternative detention order.

23. Conduct of youth

The youth must be of good behaviour and not offend against a law in force in the Territory.

24. Youth to reside at premises or place specified

(1) The youth must reside at the premises or place specified in the alternative detention order.

(2) The youth must not disturb, or interfere with, any other person residing at the premises or place.

25. Youth attending other places

(1) The youth must not leave the premises or place specified in the alternative detention order except as approved by the Director to attend:

- (a) the youth's place of employment to engage in that employment; or
- (b) a place:
 - (i) of religious worship; or
 - (ii) of business; or
 - (iii) that is an educational or rehabilitation centre.

(2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the youth from attending a place to obtain urgent medical or dental treatment.

(3) The youth must notify a surveillance officer, as soon as practicable, of any absence from the premises or place to receive medical or dental treatment.

(4) The youth must proceed directly, and by the shortest practicable route, to and from a place the youth is authorised by this regulation to attend.

26. Surveillance

(1) The youth must accept the supervision of a surveillance officer and obey all reasonable directions of the surveillance officer.

- (2) If required by the Director, the youth must:
 - (a) accept telephone calls by a surveillance officer to the premises or place specified in the alternative detention order or to the youth's place of employment; and
 - (b) accept telephone calls from a machine, equipment or device associated with a monitoring device to the premises or place; and
 - (c) accept visits from a surveillance officer at a place the youth is authorised under regulation 25 to attend.

(3) The youth must attend counselling or courses at the times and places directed by a surveillance officer.

(4) If a surveillance officer directs the youth not to associate with a particular person, the youth must comply with the direction.

(5) The youth must submit to tests as required by a surveillance officer for the purpose of detecting the presence of alcohol or other drugs in the youth's blood, breath or urine.

Youth Justice Regulations

(6) If a surveillance officer is performing a function under the Act, the youth must:

- (a) permit the surveillance officer, and any other person who is assisting in performing the function, to enter the premises or place specified in the order, and any building at the premises or place; and
- (b) not obstruct the surveillance officer or other person in the performance of the function.

(7) The youth must not threaten, insult or use abusive language to a surveillance officer.

27. Prohibited conduct

The youth must not do any of the following:

- (a) visit any premises or place other than in accordance with regulation 25;
- (b) consume alcohol;
- (c) use or consume an illicit drug or substance.

28. Firearms

(1) The youth must not, without the approval of the Director, possess a firearm within the meaning of the Firearms Act at the premises or place specified in the alternative detention order as the premises or place at which the youth must reside.

(2) If the youth knows of another person bringing a firearm onto the premises or place, the youth must notify a surveillance officer without delay.

PART 5 – DETENTION CENTRES AND DETAINEES

Division 1 – Preliminary matters

29. Definitions

In this Part:

"member of staff", in relation to a detention centre, means a member of the staff of the detention centre;

"Ombudsman" means the person holding or occupying:

- (a) the office of Ombudsman under the Ombudsman (Northern Territory) Act; or

- (b) an office of a Commonwealth ombudsman under the Ombudsman Act 1976 (Cth);

"property", of a detainee, includes money;

"Superintendent", in relation to a detention centre, means the superintendent appointed under section 151(1) of the Act for the detention centre.

Division 2 – Administrative matters

30. Determination by Director or Superintendent

(1) The Director or Superintendent may make a determination in relation to any aspect of the management and operation of the detention centre.

(2) A determination may relate to the conduct of persons (whether detainees or other persons) within the detention centre.

(3) The Superintendent must ensure a copy of a determination relating to conduct of detainees is given to each detainee on admission to the detention centre or as soon as practicable after admission.

31. Certain determinations become rules of detention centre

(1) Determinations relating to conduct of detainees may be referred to as "rules" of the detention centre.

(2) The Superintendent must ensure a copy of the rules is posted in a place or places where detainees can access them.

(3) If a detainee is unable to read and understand the rules, a member of staff must explain them to the detainee in a language and manner the detainee is likely to understand, having regard to the detainee's age, maturity, cultural background and English language skills.

(4) A breach of the rules by a detainee may result in disciplinary action.

(5) If a determination is amended or a new determination is made, the Superintendent must ensure all detainees are made aware of any change to the rules.

32. Certain persons may attend at detention centre

(1) The following persons may attend at a detention centre at any reasonable time, subject to the conditions the Director considers appropriate:

- (a) a Judge or magistrate;

- (b) an official visitor for the detention centre;
- (c) a member of the Legislative Assembly;
- (d) a medical practitioner, or nurse, who is attending to business at the detention centre;
- (e) a person authorised in writing by the Director.

(2) An Ombudsman or a person authorised by an Ombudsman may, in the course of an investigation being conducted by the Ombudsman, attend at a detention centre at any reasonable time subject to the conditions the Director considers appropriate.

33. Particulars to be recorded in register

(1) For section 158(1)(d) of the Act, the following are the particulars the Superintendent must record in the register in relation to each detainee:

- (a) a description of the detainee's general appearance, features (including height and mass) and distinguishing marks;
- (b) any alias known to be used by the detainee;
- (c) the detainee's usual place of residence when admitted to the detention centre;
- (d) the detainee's date of birth;
- (e) the reason for admission;
- (f) the reason for release or transfer from the detention centre.

(2) The Superintendent must also, when a detainee is admitted to the detention centre, take identifying photographs of the detainee and keep the photographs in or with the register.

34. Destruction of records

(1) The Superintendent must destroy the photographs, and the records mentioned in regulation 33(1)(a), (b) and (c), if the detainee:

- (a) is discharged without conviction by the Court; or
- (b) is acquitted of the charge for which he or she was detained.

(2) However, the Superintendent may keep and use, under regulation 35, the name of a suburb or town that forms part of the information mentioned in regulation 33(1)(c).

35. Use of records for statistical purposes

(1) The Superintendent may use the records kept in the register, and the name of a suburb or town (as mentioned in regulation 34) for statistical purposes.

(2) The Superintendent must ensure any statistical information released does not permit any particular youth to be identified.

36. Detainee's property

(1) As soon as practicable after a detainee is admitted to a detention centre, the Superintendent must make an inventory of all property in the detainee's possession when admitted.

(2) The detainee must be asked to sign the inventory as an acknowledgment that it is correct.

(3) If the detainee refuses to sign the inventory, the Superintendent must endorse on the inventory a note of the refusal and any reason given by the detainee for the refusal.

(4) If the Superintendent is satisfied any of the property is of a perishable, dangerous or unhygienic nature, that property may be destroyed or otherwise dealt with as ordered by the Superintendent.

(5) A record of the order and action taken must be noted on the inventory.

37. Safekeeping of detainee's property

(1) The Superintendent may, subject to considerations of security and practicability, authorise the holding at the detention centre of property for a detainee.

(2) The Superintendent must keep in safekeeping any property held at the detention centre for a detainee, but may at any time:

- (a) refuse to continue to hold the property; or
- (b) refuse to accept any other property belonging to the detainee.

(3) The Superintendent must ensure the property held for a detainee is made available:

- (a) to the detainee on release from the detention centre or as soon as practicable after release; or
- (b) while the detainee is detained – to a person nominated in writing by the detainee.

Youth Justice Regulations

(4) The person who receives property under subregulation (3) must sign a receipt for the property and the Superintendent must keep a copy of the receipt.

(5) The Superintendent must ensure the property held for a detainee who is removed from a detention centre to a prison (except temporarily under section 154 of the Act) is sent to the prison.

(6) A member of staff may search property:

(a) issued to or kept by a detainee; or

(b) held at a detention centre for a detainee.

(7) For subregulation (6), the member of staff may, using proper care, dismantle the property.

Division 3 – Detainees at risk of self-harm

38. Definition

In this Division:

"health professional" means a medical practitioner, a nurse, or other appropriately qualified person (for example, a social worker or psychologist).

39. Purpose of Division

(1) This Division prescribes the manner for dealing with a detainee who is considered to be at risk of self-harm.

(2) To avoid doubt, a detainee may be classified as being at risk of self-harm at any time.

40. Court considers youth at-risk

If the Court endorses a warrant with a note that the youth is at risk of self-harm, when admitted to the detention centre the youth must immediately be referred to a medical practitioner.

41. Detainee at-risk

(1) If a member of staff considers a detainee may be at risk of self-harm, the member must:

- (a) ensure the detainee is in view of a member of staff or a health professional at all times until:
 - (i) the Emergency Management Protocol prepared under regulation 42 is implemented; or
 - (ii) an individual management plan for the particular detainee is implemented; and
- (b) notify the Superintendent or other person in charge of the detention centre at the time.

(2) The Superintendent or person in charge must immediately:

- (a) refer the detainee to a medical practitioner; and
- (b) implement the Emergency Management Protocol or, if an individual management plan has been formulated for the particular detainee, that plan.

42. Emergency Management Protocol

(1) The Director must ensure an Emergency Management Protocol is prepared in relation to the accommodation of at-risk detainees in an observation room.

(2) The Emergency Management Protocol must address the following issues:

- (a) the observation room must be thoroughly checked for potentially hazardous or unauthorised objects before the detainee is introduced into the room;
- (b) the room must be furnished with a mattress and bedding made of rip-proof and non-flammable material;
- (c) continuous monitoring of the detainee by closed-circuit television, or physical observation by a member of staff, and written recording of observations (including the date, time and name of the member of staff) at intervals not exceeding 15 minutes;
- (d) the detainee to be clothed in rip-proof material and all potentially harmful items must be removed from the detainee's possession;

Youth Justice Regulations

(e) the detainee must be provided with adequate fluids and food suitable to be eaten without cutlery.

(3) The Emergency Management Protocol may address other issues the Director or Superintendent considers appropriate.

(4) The Superintendent must ensure the Emergency Management Protocol is implemented in relation to an at-risk detainee and is maintained until an individual management plan is formulated for the particular detainee.

(5) If an individual management plan has been formulated for an at-risk detainee, the Emergency Management Protocol yields to the plan.

43. Individual management plan

(1) If a medical practitioner assesses the detainee as being at risk of self-harm, the medical practitioner must formulate and document an individual management plan for the detainee.

(2) The plan must be culturally appropriate for the detainee.

(3) The medical practitioner must consult, as practicable, with:

(a) persons having relevant knowledge of the detainee; and

(b) persons likely to play a key role in the management of the detainee.

(4) The plan must be updated as appropriate after each time a health professional has contact with the detainee.

44. Cancellation of at-risk status

(1) A detainee's at-risk status may be cancelled only on the recommendation of a medical practitioner after consultation with the Superintendent or a member of staff authorised by the Superintendent for that purpose.

(2) After a detainee's at-risk status is cancelled, the detainee must be provided with appropriate follow-up attention by a medical practitioner or other appropriate health professional.

Division 4 – Matters relating to visitors

45. Visitors book

(1) The Superintendent must keep a visitors book at the detention centre.

Youth Justice Regulations

(2) The following details must be entered in the visitors book in relation to each person visiting a detainee:

- (a) the name of the visitor;
- (b) the date of the visit;
- (c) the name of the detainee.

46. Visits to detainees

(1) The Superintendent must permit a detainee to receive a visit from a friend or relative as soon as practicable after the detainee's admission to a detention centre.

(2) The Superintendent must, as practicable, permit a detainee to receive at least one visit each week from a friend, relative or other person during the period the detainee is detained at the detention centre.

(3) The Superintendent may, in addition to those visits, permit a detainee to receive visits from friends, relatives or other persons under the conditions the Superintendent considers appropriate.

(4) The Superintendent may require a visit to a detainee to take place in the presence of, or under the general supervision of, a member of staff.

(5) The Superintendent may, if satisfied it is appropriate, facilitate communication and visitation between a detainee and a responsible adult in respect of the detainee.

47. Visits by legal representative or interpreter

(1) A legal representative or interpreter for a detainee may, together or separately, visit the detainee at any reasonable time.

(2) A visit by the detainee's legal representative must not be monitored.

(3) Despite subregulation (2), the Superintendent may direct that the visit must take place within the view, but not within the hearing, of a member of staff.

48. Requirements for visitors

A person seeking entry to a detention centre, whether to visit a detainee or for any other reason, must:

- (a) give his or her name and address; and
- (b) produce proof of his or her identity; and

Youth Justice Regulations

- (c) if required by a member of staff – submit to a search of his or her person or a thing in his or her possession.

49. Entry may be refused

The Superintendent may refuse permission to enter the detention centre to a person:

- (a) who does not comply with regulation 48; or
- (b) whose presence would, in the Superintendent's opinion, be prejudicial to the good order and management of the detention centre or to the interests of a detainee.

50. Person may be required to leave

(1) If the Superintendent is satisfied a person has behaved improperly or inappropriately while at the detention centre, the Superintendent may require the person to leave the detention centre.

- (2) The person must comply with the requirement.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months.

51. Detainee's refusal to see visitor

- (1) A detainee may refuse to see a visitor.

(2) However, if the Superintendent determines it is in the interests of the detainee that the detainee see the visitor, the Superintendent may override the detainee's refusal.

52. Visit to detainee in hospital

- (1) This regulation applies in relation to a detainee who is in hospital.

(2) A person must not visit the detainee without the permission of the Director or Superintendent.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months.

(3) If the detainee is seriously ill, the Director or Superintendent must only permit visitors who are, in his or her opinion, appropriate in the circumstances.

Division 5 – Detainee's mail and communication

53. Definitions

In this Division:

"letter" means a letter, card, telegram, document or other similar form of written communication, and includes:

- (a) an envelope or other packaging containing any of those things; and
- (b) a fax, email or other electronic transmission;

"parcel" means a parcel, package or other similar article.

54. Inspection of mail

(1) This regulation applies if the Superintendent suspects the contents of a letter or parcel:

- (a) may threaten or disturb the person to whom the letter or parcel is addressed or any other person; or
- (b) may relate to an unlawful purpose; or
- (c) may adversely affect the security, safety or good order of the detention centre.

(2) The Superintendent, or a member of staff authorised by the Superintendent for that purpose, may open and inspect the letter or parcel.

(3) If a letter or parcel is opened and inspected and the contents are of a nature described in subregulation (1), the Superintendent must:

- (a) take possession of the letter or parcel and its contents; and
 - (b) deal with them in accordance with any directions given by the Director.
- (4) The Director may give directions generally or in a specific case.

(5) The Superintendent must advise the detainee to whom the letter or parcel is addressed or by whom it is being sent (as the case may be) that the letter or parcel has been dealt with under this regulation.

55. Letter to or from Minister and others

(1) The Superintendent or a member of staff must not delay, intercept, open or inspect a letter:

- (a) sent by a detainee and addressed to the detainee's legal representative, the Minister, the Director or an Ombudsman; or
- (b) addressed to a detainee – if the letter has apparently been sent from the detainee's legal representative, the Minister, the Director or an Ombudsman.

(2) Despite subregulation (1), if the Superintendent reasonably suspects that a letter addressed to a detainee and purporting to have been sent from the detainee's legal representative, the Minister, the Director or an Ombudsman, does not originate from that source, the Superintendent may open the letter and inspect it to the extent necessary to establish its origin.

(3) If the Superintendent opens and inspects a letter under subregulation (2), the Superintendent must advise the Director as soon as practicable, in writing, of:

- (a) the action taken; and
- (b) the reason for suspecting the letter did not originate from the relevant source; and
- (c) the finding on opening and inspecting the letter.

(4) The Superintendent must deal with the letter in accordance with the directions given by the Director.

(5) The Director may give directions generally or in a specific case.

(6) The Superintendent must advise the detainee to whom the letter is addressed that the letter has been dealt with under this regulation.

56. Telephone calls

(1) The Superintendent must allow a detainee to make and receive telephone calls on the conditions the Superintendent considers appropriate.

(2) A detainee must be permitted to make or receive at least one telephone call per week.

Youth Justice Regulations

Division 6 – Health of detainees

57. Medical examination of detainees

(1) The Superintendent must ensure a comprehensive medical and health assessment is carried out on each detainee within 24 hours after the detainee's admission to the detention centre.

(2) If a medical practitioner is not available to carry out the assessment, a registered nurse may carry out an interim assessment.

(3) If an interim assessment is conducted by a registered nurse, a full examination by a medical practitioner must be carried out as soon as practicable.

(4) In this regulation:

"registered nurse" means a registered nurse who has a right of practice under the Health Practitioners Act.

58. Medical attention and treatment

A detainee must be provided with the medical attention, treatment and medicine that, in the opinion of a medical practitioner, is necessary for the preservation of the health of the detainee and, if applicable, other detainees and members of staff.

59. Superintendent to be notified of illness

(1) A member of staff who notices that a detainee appears to be physically or mentally ill must bring the matter to the attention of the Superintendent without delay.

(2) The Superintendent must ensure appropriate medical attention is provided to the detainee.

60. Urgent medical attention

In an emergency requiring that medical attention be provided to a detainee, the members of staff responsible for supervising the detainee must take action that is reasonable in the circumstances and likely to ensure that medical attention is provided to the detainee as soon as practicable.

Division 7 – Matters relating to detainees

61. Detainee clothing

(1) The Superintendent must ensure that, on admission to the detention centre, a detainee is issued with sufficient clothing:

(a) to allow the detainee to have a clean change each day; and

- (b) that is appropriate for the climatic conditions prevailing in the region; and
- (c) that is appropriate for participation in sporting and recreation activities; and
- (d) other than for the purpose of sporting activities, that is of varying colours and styles so as not to represent a uniform.

(2) The detainee must also be issued with footwear appropriate for the various activities in which a detainee would normally participate.

62. Detainee dietary requirements

(1) The Superintendent must ensure food supplied to detainees meets the dietary requirements of developing youths.

(2) If the Superintendent determines that, because of religious or personal beliefs, a detainee requires special dietary consideration, the Superintendent must ensure those requirements are met to the extent practicable.

(3) If the Superintendent has been informed of a detainee's special dietary requirements by a medical practitioner, the Superintendent must ensure those dietary requirements are met.

63. Access to ministers of religion

The Superintendent must ensure:

- (a) detainees have access to an appropriate minister of religion if required; and
- (b) detainees may pursue their religious beliefs to the extent practicable.

64. Responsibilities of members of staff

(1) Members of staff must exercise understanding, restraint and patience in the care, control and supervision of detainees and in the maintenance of discipline amongst detainees.

(2) Members of staff must encourage positive behaviour among detainees that is consistent with increasing the responsibility and independence of detainees.

65. Detainee to follow instructions and rules

- (1) A detainee must:
 - (a) follow all lawful instructions given to the detainee by the Superintendent or a member of staff; and
 - (b) obey the rules of the detention centre; and
 - (c) comply with all written instructions addressed generally to detainees.

(2) A detainee aggrieved by an instruction must comply with the instruction to the extent practicable, but may later make a complaint in relation to the instruction.

66. Complaint by detainee

(1) A detainee may make a written complaint to the Superintendent in relation to a matter arising from his or her detention.

(2) The complaint may be lodged with any member of staff.

(3) If a detainee lacks adequate writing skills, the complaint must be written on his or her behalf by a member of staff, accurately recording the nature of the complaint.

(4) A member of staff with whom a complaint is lodged or who writes a complaint on behalf of a detainee must forward the complaint to the Superintendent without delay.

(5) The Superintendent must deal with a complaint as soon as practicable.

(6) The Superintendent may dismiss a complaint without further action if he or she considers the complaint to be trivial.

(7) A detainee must be informed of the outcome of, or action taken in relation to, his or her complaint.

67. Register of complaints

(1) The Superintendent must maintain a complaints register at the detention centre.

(2) The following details must be recorded in the register in relation to every complaint received from, or on behalf of, a detainee:

- (a) the name of the complainant;

Youth Justice Regulations

- (b) the name of the person from whom the complaint was received;
- (c) the date and time the complaint was received;
- (d) the nature of the complaint;
- (e) the action taken on the complaint.

68. Remaining in detention centre

(1) If a detainee who is to be released from a detention centre requests, the Superintendent may permit the detainee to remain in the detention centre overnight until the morning after the release date.

(2) A request for subregulation (1) must be in writing and witnessed by a person who is not a member of staff.

(3) If a detainee is seriously ill on his or her release date, the Superintendent may, on the recommendation of a medical practitioner, permit the detainee to remain in the detention centre until suitable arrangements are made for the detainee's release.

(4) The rules of the detention centre continue to apply to a youth who remains in the centre past his or her release date.

Division 8 – Management of detainees

69. Productive activities to be made available

(1) The Superintendent must maintain a comprehensive case management system to assess each detainee's needs in relation to education, vocational training and rehabilitation.

(2) The Superintendent must ensure an appropriate programme of productive activities that addresses the identified needs of the detainee is available to each detainee.

70. Management of misbehaviour

(1) A member of staff must manage incidents of misbehaviour in the manner the member considers most appropriate, having regard to all the circumstances, including the interests of the detainee or detainees involved and the rules of the detention centre.

(2) In the discipline or control of behaviour of detainees, a practice that is prohibited by the rules of the detention centre must not be used.

Note for subregulation (2)

Section 153 of the Act also lists certain practices that must not be used in maintaining discipline.

71. Reasonable physical force permitted

(1) Subject to regulation 70(2), if it is necessary to physically restrain a detainee for the protection of a detainee, other detainees or other persons, physical force may be used.

(2) The force used must not exceed force that is reasonable in the circumstances.

72. Isolation in cell

(1) A detainee must not be isolated in a cell except under section 153(5) of the Act.

(2) If a detainee is isolated:

(a) the detainee must be continuously monitored by closed-circuit television or physical observation by a member of staff; and

(b) written observations by a member of staff, including the date, time and name of the member of staff, must be recorded at intervals not exceeding 15 minutes.

(3) The Superintendent must keep a journal recording:

(a) the date and time a detainee is isolated; and

(b) the name of the detainee; and

(c) the reason why the detainee was isolated; and

(d) the time the on-call person in charge was notified and that person's name; and

(e) the observations of a member of staff at intervals not exceeding 15 minutes and the name of the member of staff making the observation; and

(f) the date and time of exercise periods and ablutions; and

(g) details of any approval by the Director for isolation exceeding 24 hours; and

(h) the date and time the detainee is released from the isolation cell.

73. Search

(1) For section 161 of the Act, the Superintendent or a member of staff may search a detainee:

- (a) when the detainee is admitted to the detention centre; and
- (b) on the detainee temporarily leaving, and returning to, the detention centre; and
- (c) on the detainee being transferred from the detention centre to a prison or another detention centre; and
- (d) on other occasions, and in the manner, directed by the Superintendent as he or she considers necessary.

(2) The search must be conducted having regard to the detainee's dignity and self-respect.

(3) A member of staff may only search the detainee in the presence of another member of staff.

(4) If the search involves stripping the detainee of clothing, the search must be conducted by not less than 2 members of staff of the same gender as the detainee.

(5) A detainee must not be stripped of clothing and searched except by direction of the Superintendent under section 161 of the Act.

- (6) A detainee must not be stripped of clothing and searched:
 - (a) in the sight or presence of a person of the opposite gender; or
 - (b) in the presence of another detainee, unless it is impracticable to move either the detainee to be stripped or the other detainee.

74. Search register

(1) The Superintendent must keep a search register at the detention centre.

(2) The following details must be recorded in the register in relation to each search of a detainee or of a detainee's personal area or effects:

- (a) the name of the detainee;
- (b) the names of the members of staff who carried out the search;
- (c) the nature of the search, for example, the detainee's person, clothing or room;

Youth Justice Regulations

- (d) the date and time the search was carried out;
- (e) the reason for the search;
- (f) the results of the search.

(3) The register may also record other information the Superintendent considers appropriate.

PART 6 – FORMS

75. Prescribed forms

(1) For section 21 of the Act, Form 1 of the Schedule is the document that charges a youth with an offence.

(2) Form 2 of the Schedule is a summons to a youth to answer a charge.

(3) For sections 30, 31 and 33 of the Act, Form 3 of the Schedule is an application for approval to carry out a forensic procedure on a youth.
