Swimming Pool Fencing Regulations

AMENDMENT OF SWIMMING POOL FENCING REGULATIONS

The Swimming Pool Fencing Regulations are amended by inserting after regulation 5 the following:

"6. Exclusion of certain swimming pools

"A structure that is within paragraphs (a) and (b) of the definition of 'swimming pool' in section 4(1) of the Act, or is a spa pool, is not a swimming pool for the purposes of the Act if it is situated –

- (a) at premises at which a hotel or motel is situated;
 - (b) at premises (other than a house) at which accommodation is provided for a fee, or under a short term lease, for the purposes of holiday accommodation;
 - (c) at premises at which is situated a house at which accommodation is provided for a fee, or under a short term lease, for the purposes of holiday accommodation, unless the owner of the premises resides in the house; or
 - (d) at premises at which is situated a building that forms part of a complex of buildings that are principally used for non-residential purposes."
