REGULATIONS

New regulations

The Administration and Probate Regulations are amended by inserting after regulation 2A the following:

"2B. Notice of intention to administer estate (prescribed information) – section 110A(3)

"For the purposes of section 110A(3) of the Act, a notice given under section 110A(2) of the Act is to contain the following information:

- (a) the name and address of the professional personal representative who intends to administer the estate;
- (b) the name, address and occupation of the deceased person;
- (c) a statement to the effect that the deceased died leaving a will or died without leaving a will (as the case may be);
- (d) a statement to the effect that the professional personal representative intends to administer the estate under section 110A of the Act;
- (e) a statement to the effect that all persons having claims against the estate are requested to submit their claims in writing to the professional personal representative within 2 months after the date on which the notice is published, after which date the professional personal representative will distribute the estate having regard to the claims of which notice has been given.

"2C. Maximum fee chargeable by professional personal representative – section 110D(2)

"For the purposes of section 110D(2) of the Act, the maximum fee that a professional personal representative may charge is $1 500."
