REGULATIONS

1. Citation

These Regulations may be cited as the Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading (Trading Stamps) Regulations.

2. Commencement

These Regulations come into effect on the date fixed by the Minister by notice in the Gazette.

3. Definitions

In these Regulations –

"brochure", in relation to a third-party trading scheme, means a brochure for the scheme that satisfies the requirements of regulation 4(3);

"participating retailer", in relation to a third-party trading scheme, means a person who –

- (a) supplies goods or services as a party to the scheme; and
- (b) is named as a participating retailer in the brochure for the scheme, and includes, in the case of a participating retailer that is a body corporate, all related bodies corporate within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001;

"promoter of a third-party trading scheme" includes, if the promoter is a body corporate, all related bodies corporate within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001.

4. Conditions in relation to promoters

(1) For the purposes of Part 9 of the Act, the requirements of this regulation are conditions that are to be complied with by promoters of third-party trading schemes.

(2) A promoter of a third-party trading scheme must maintain an office in Australia at which –

- (a) brochures for the scheme are supplied on request to members of the public;
- (b) the requirements of members of the scheme and participating retailers may be dealt with; and

Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading (Trading Stamps) Regulations

- (c) records are kept relating to the operation of the scheme.
- (3) A brochure for a third-party trading scheme is to contain –
  - (a) all terms and conditions of the scheme; and
  - (b) if the scheme provides entitlements to travel – a table setting out the places to which travel may take place and the number of points required to be obtained, or other requirements to be satisfied, by a member in order to become entitled to travel under the scheme.
- (4) A promoter of a third-party trading scheme must, at the request of a member of the public, supply to him or her, free of charge, a brochure for the scheme.
- (5) A third-party trading scheme is not to take effect in relation to a person on the acceptance by the person of a brochure for the scheme.
- (6) A promoter of a third-party trading scheme must give to members of the scheme at least 3 months notice of a proposed suspension or discontinuance of the scheme.
- (7) A promoter of a third-party trading scheme must not sell or otherwise dispose of or make available to a person (other than a participating retailer) any information about a member of the scheme.

5. Conditions in relation to suppliers of goods and services

- (1) For the purposes of Part 9 of the Act, the requirements of this regulation are conditions that are to be complied with by participating retailers for a third-party trading scheme.
- (2) A participating retailer for a third-party trading scheme must take all reasonable steps to ensure that brochures for the scheme are available for inspection at each retail outlet at all places in the retail outlet where application forms for membership of the scheme are available to members of the public.
- (3) If a participating retailer for a third-party trading scheme does not have brochures for the scheme to distribute to members of the public, he or she must provide the telephone number of the office referred to in regulation 4(2) to a member of the public who wishes to obtain a brochure for the scheme.
- (4) A participating retailer for a third-party trading scheme must not sell or otherwise dispose of or make available any information about particular members of the scheme that is acquired pursuant to the scheme.

Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading (Trading Stamps) Regulations

(5) Subregulation (4) does not apply in relation to information provided for the purposes of the scheme to –

- (a) a promoter of the scheme; or
  - (b) employees or agents of the participating retailer.
