AMENDMENT OF ALICE SPRINGS (ANIMAL CONTROL) BY-LAWS

Repeal and substitution

By-law 6 of the Alice Springs (Animal Control) By-laws is repealed and the following substituted:

"6. Registration by another council

"(1) In this By-law, 'council' means a council or other body that has local government functions for or in relation to animal control under a law in force in a State or Territory of the Commonwealth.

"(2) If an animal is registered (however described) by another council –

- (a) the registration of the animal is to be taken to be registration of the animal under these By-laws until and including the date when the animal's registration by the other council would have expired; and
- (b) a subcutaneous implant that was issued by the other council to identify the animal and implanted in the animal is to be taken to be an identification device issued to the owner of the animal and implanted in the animal under by-law 13.

"(3) These By-laws apply, with the necessary changes, to an animal referred to in clause (2) as if the animal were an animal registered under these By-laws.

"(4) The burden of proving that an animal is registered by another council lies on the owner of the animal."
