AMENDMENTS OF STOCK DISEASES REGULATIONS

1. REPEAL AND SUBSTITUTION

Regulation 14 of the Stock Diseases Regulations is repealed and the following substituted:

"14. MOVEMENT OF CATTLE

"(1) Subject to this regulation, where cattle are to be moved from a holding on which they are kept or depastured to an abattoir, saleyard or such other place as the Chief Inspector, for the purpose of this regulation, determines -

- (a) the owner of the holding;
- (b) where the owner of the holding is not the occupier of the holding - the occupier of the holding; and
- (c) the owner of the cattle at the time the cattle are moved, shall, before the cattle are moved, ensure that each animal has been legibly branded in accordance with the Brands Act and that - * Notified in the Northern Territory Government Gazette on 14 September 1994.

Stock Diseases Regulations

- (d) where the cattle are ordinarily kept or depastured on that holding - the tail tag; or
- (e) where the cattle are not ordinarily kept or depastured on that holding - a stranger tail tag, registered under these Regulations in respect of the holding, is affixed to each animal around the tail immediately above the brush.

"(2) Subregulation (1) does not apply to cattle legibly branded in accordance with the Brands Act and moved to an abattoir -

- (a) in a consignment of 40 or more;
- (b) from an area in respect of which one tail tag only is registered under these Regulations;
- (c) separately and apart from cattle from another area in respect of which a tail tag is registered under these Regulations; and
- (d) from a holding or part of a holding with a disease status of monitored negative, tested negative, confirmed free 2 or confirmed free 3.

"(3) The Chief Inspector may, by notice in writing, exempt a person either generally or in respect of a particular consignment of stock, from the requirement under subregulation (1) that a tail tag be affixed to stock before the stock is moved from a holding."

2. REPEAL

Regulation 21 of the Stock Diseases Regulations is repealed.
