(3) Unless the Court otherwise orders, a party to an application on whose behalf an affidavit is filed shall cause the deponent to attend at the Court to be examined if notice that such attendance is required is served on the party by another party a reasonable time before the commencement of the relevant hearing or preliminary conference.

(4) Where a deponent in respect of whom an order is made under subrule (2) or a notice is served under subrule (3) does not attend for examination, the Court may order that the affidavit be not received in evidence.

(5) Subject to rule 23, a party who intends to adduce oral or affidavit evidence of a person as an expert witness before the Court shall, not later than 10 days before the date fixed for the relevant hearing or preliminary conference, serve on every other party a statement -

- (a) giving the name and address of the witness;
- (b) describing his qualifications to give evidence it is proposed to adduce from him as an expert; and
- (c) giving the substance of the evidence it is proposed to adduce from him as an expert.

(6) Subject to rule 23, except with the leave of the Court or by consent of the parties, or in cross-examination, a party shall not adduce at a hearing or preliminary conference evidence from a witness as an expert unless that party has served a statement under subrule (5).

Work Health Court Rules

(7) Notwithstanding anything in this rule, the Court may order that evidence of a particular fact shall be given in proceedings in such manner as it directs.

(8) Without limiting subrule (7), the Court may order that evidence of a particular fact be given by -

- (a) statement on oath of information and belief;
- (b) the production of documents or entries in books;
- (c) the production of copies of documents, including photocopies and facsimile transmission copies, or entries in books; or
- (d) the use of telephone or video conference facilities.

23. MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS AND EVIDENCE

(1) In this rule, unless the contrary intention appears -

"examination" means an examination for medical, dental, psychological, therapeutic, rehabilitative, ergonomic, vocational or other purposes as the case requires;

"hospital report" means a statement in writing concerning the plaintiff made by or on behalf of a hospital, rehabilitation centre or other institution;

"medical expert" means a person lawfully practising in a branch of medicine, dentistry, pharmacology, occupational therapy, physiotherapy, rehabilitation, ergonomics or a related field;

"medical matters" includes matters referred to by a medical expert within the medical expert's field of expertise;

"medical report" -

- (a) means a statement in writing by a medical expert concerning a worker; and
- (b) includes a document which the medical expert intends should be read with the statement, whether the document was in existence at the time the statement was made or was a document which he obtained or caused to be brought into existence subsequently.

(2) The employer may, in writing, request the worker to submit to appropriate examinations by a medical expert or experts at specified times and places.

Work Health Court Rules

(3) Where a worker refuses or neglects without reasonable cause to comply with a request under subrule (2), the Court may, if the request was on reasonable terms, strike out the application.

(4) The costs of and incidental to the examination shall be costs in the proceeding.

(5) Without limiting subrule (4), the employer shall, on request by the worker whether before or after the worker is examined, pay to the worker a reasonable amount to meet the worker's travelling and other expenses of and incidental to the examination.

(6) An employer for whom a worker is examined under subrule (2) shall, as soon as practicable after the examination, obtain from the medical expert conducting the examination a medical report.

(7) For the purposes of subrule (9) -

(a) a worker shall serve on each other party a copy of a medical report in his possession, custody or power which he intends to tender, or the substance of which he intends to adduce in evidence, at the preliminary conference or hearing; and

(b) an employer shall serve on the worker a copy of a medical report in the employer's possession, custody or power (other than a medical report served on or supplied to the employer by the worker).

(8) Where a worker obtains possession, custody or power of a hospital report which he intends to tender or the maker of which he intends to call, this rule shall, with the necessary changes, apply as if the report were a medical report.

(9) A medical report shall be served as soon as practicable after it comes into the possession of the party obliged under subrule (7) to serve it.

(10) Where an employer who has served on a worker a copy of a medical report of an examination of the worker made under subrule (2) obtains from the medical expert who made the examination a further report of the examination, the employer shall forthwith -

(a) where the further report is in writing - serve a copy on the worker; and

(b) where the further report is oral - give the worker notice in writing of its substance.

Work Health Court Rules

(11) Except with the leave of the Court or by consent of the parties, a party shall not, except in cross-examination, adduce evidence from a medical expert on medical matters unless that evidence is disclosed by a copy of a medical report served in accordance with these Rules.

(12) The worker shall file a copy of each hospital report and medical report known to have been served under this rule.

(13) The copies shall be filed by delivering them to the Registrar in a sealed envelope bearing the title of the proceeding.

(14) Where a copy of a medical report is served in accordance with subrule (9), the report is admissible as evidence of the medical expert's opinion and, where the medical expert's oral evidence of a fact on which the opinion was based would be admissible, as evidence of that fact.

(15) Unless the Court otherwise orders, the party on whose behalf a copy of a medical report is served shall cause the medical expert to attend the Court to be cross-examined if notice that such attendance is required is served on the party by another party not later than 14 days before the commencement of the preliminary conference or the hearing of the application, as the case may be.

(16) Where a medical expert in respect of whom a notice is served under subrule (15) does not attend for cross-examination, the Court may order that the medical report be not received into evidence.

24. PLEADINGS

(1) Where a magistrate in a preliminary conference or otherwise does not dispense with -

- (a) the requirement and delivery of further pleadings;
- (b) the making of discovery and inspection of documents; or
- (c) delivery of interrogatories,

a party may, in accordance with this rule, require an opposing party to respond to a request for that action.

- (2) The Rules of the Supreme Court relating to -
  - (a) pleadings; and
  - (b) discovery and inspection, including pre-trial and non-party discovery and inspection,

Work Health Court Rules

with the necessary changes, apply to and in relation to matters in the Court so far as they -

- (a) are capable of applying to those matters;
- (b) are not inconsistent with these Rules;
- (c) can be applied without injustice to a party; and
- (d) can be applied without unduly prejudicing the expeditious determination of the matter.

25. AMENDMENT

The Court may, at any stage of a proceeding, allow a party to alter or amend his pleadings in such manner and on such terms as it thinks fit and all amendments shall be made as are necessary for the purpose of determining the real questions at issue between the parties.

26. CHANGE OF LEGAL PRACTITIONER

(1) Where a legal practitioner acts for a party in a proceeding and the party changes his legal practitioner, the party shall forthwith file notice of the change and serve a copy of the notice on the other parties and, where practicable, his former legal practitioner.

(2) Where a party who has no legal practitioner in a proceeding appoints a legal practitioner to act for the party in the proceeding, the legal practitioner shall forthwith file notice of the appointment and serve a copy of the notice on the other parties.

(3) Where a legal practitioner ceases to act for a party in a proceeding, unless a notice of change is filed and served under subrule (1), the legal practitioner shall forthwith file notice that he has ceased to act and serve a copy on all parties.

(4) A notice under subrule (3) shall state the address of the party last known to the legal practitioner.

(5) Except by leave of the Court, a legal practitioner shall not file a notice under subrule (3) -

- (a) where the address of the party in the notice is outside the Territory; or
- (b) after a matter has been set down for formal determination.

Work Health Court Rules

(6) Where a legal practitioner who has acted for a party in a proceeding has died or become bankrupt, or cannot be found, or has ceased to have the right of practising in the Court, or for any other reason has ceased to practise, and the party has not given notice under subrule (1) or the legal practitioner has not given notice under subrule (3), the Court may, on interlocutory application made by any other party to the proceeding, by order, declare that the legal practitioner has ceased to be the legal practitioner acting for the first-mentioned party in the proceeding.

(7) An interlocutory application under subrule (6) shall be supported by affidavit stating the facts on which the application is made and, unless the Court otherwise orders, the affidavit shall be served on the party to whose legal practitioner the application relates.

(8) Where an order is made under subrule (6), the party on whose application it was made shall forthwith serve a copy of the order on every other party to the proceeding and file an affidavit of service.

(9) The address for service of a party -

- (a) who changes his legal practitioner and files and serves notice under subrule (1), is the business address of the new legal practitioner;
- (b) who appoints a legal practitioner in the circumstances referred to in subrule (2), is the business address of the legal practitioner; or
- (c) for whom a legal practitioner has ceased to act, where notice is filed and served under subrule (3) by the legal practitioner without leave, is the address stated in the notice.

(10) Where the Court, under -

- (a) subrule (5)(a), gives a legal practitioner leave to file notice that he has ceased to act; or
- (b) subrule (6), by order, declares that a legal practitioner has ceased to act, it may, by order, direct what address shall be the address for service of the party for whom the legal practitioner has ceased to act.

(11) Where the Court makes no order under subrule (10), a document in the proceeding which is not required to be served personally may be served on the party for whom the legal practitioner has ceased to act by filing it.

Work Health Court Rules

27. DISCONTINUANCE

(1) A worker or applicant may, any time before formal determination or other hearing, discontinue by giving notice of discontinuance to the Registrar and to all other parties and the employer or respondent shall be entitled only to such costs as were incurred up to the receipt of the notice, unless the Court otherwise orders.

(2) The costs referred to in subrule (1) may be recovered as an award of the Court.

(3) Where an application has been discontinued, the worker or applicant shall not begin a similar application for the same cause except by leave of the Court or by consent of the employer or respondent.

(4) The leave referred to in subrule (3) may be obtained on an ex parte application.

28. SUMMONSES TO GIVE EVIDENCE

(1) A summons commanding the attendance of a person for the purpose of being examined, or for the purpose of producing any writing or other document, shall be in accordance with Form 15 and signed by the Registrar.

(2) A summons, other than a summons to produce documents, may contain any number of names, and names of witnesses may be inserted after the issue of the summons without the summons having to be re-signed by the Registrar.

(3) It shall not be necessary to obtain the leave of the Court for the issue of a summons to be served within the jurisdiction.

(4) A party may lodge a summons, together with such copies as he shall require, at the office of the Registrar who shall cause it to be duly issued.

(5) A summons to be served outside the Territory shall only be served with the leave of the Court and subject to such conditions (if any) as the Court orders.

(6) A summons shall be served by delivering a copy of it and at the same time producing the original summons or a sealed copy of it.

29. COSTS AND WITNESSES' FEES

(1) The Court may in a proceeding exercise its power and discretion in relation to costs at any stage of the proceeding or after the conclusion of the proceeding.

(2) Subject to subrule (3), a legal practitioner acting for a party to whom costs are payable shall be entitled to charge and be allowed the relevant fees set out in the Rules of the Supreme Court.

Work Health Court Rules

(3) The Court in ordering costs under subrule (2), whether on making a determination, in a preliminary conference or at an interlocutory stage, may order that a specified percentage (being not more than 100%) of the fees set out in the Rules of the Supreme Court be paid.

(4) The amount of witnesses' expenses shall be at the same rates and subject to the same conditions as the witnesses' expenses payable under the Local Courts Act to witnesses before a Local Court.

(5) Where the Court makes an order as to costs, the parties may agree to settle the amount of costs payable pursuant to the order.

30. TAXING OF COSTS

(1) In the absence of an agreement under rule 29(5) the party awarded costs may apply to the Registrar for a taxation by filing a bill of costs in taxable form (in this rule called a "bill").

(2) In a bill the professional charges shall be listed in a separate column from the disbursements.

(3) The last page of a bill shall bear a blank Certificate of Taxation in accordance with Form 16.

(4) The Registrar shall, if a bill is in taxable form, mark on it the time and date of an appointment for taxation.

(5) The party awarded costs shall, not later than 14 days before the date for the taxation of costs, serve on the party against whom costs were awarded a bill bearing the appointed time and date marked by the Registrar.

(6) The Registrar shall not proceed to tax costs if the party against whom costs were awarded is not present or represented unless the party awarded costs or his representative can satisfy the Registrar that a copy of the bill was served on the party not present.

(7) The Registrar may -

(a) adjourn a taxation of costs to enable the party against whom costs were awarded or his representative to be present at an adjourned appointment; or

(b) make his own inquiries into whether the party against whom costs were awarded has been served with the bill.

(8) The Registrar may, on the taxation of a bill, disallow in whole or in part fees, disbursements or charges that, in his opinion, were incurred or increased -

Work Health Court Rules

- (a) by a payment of unusually high fees to counsel or unusually high charges or expenses to witnesses or other persons;
- (b) improperly, unreasonably, negligently or unnecessarily; or
- (c) in any other unusual manner.

(9) Where the same legal practitioner acts in a proceeding for 2 or more parties in the same matter, the Registrar may, on the taxation of the bill of the legal practitioner, disallow so much of the costs as he considers were unnecessarily incurred by the delivery or service of separate papers or the institution of separate proceedings.

(10) Where, in the opinion of the Registrar, 2 or more documents could have been served at the same time, he may, on the taxation of a bill, allow only one fee in respect of the service of those documents.

(11) Such reasonable charges and expenses as appear to have been properly incurred in procuring evidence and the attendance of witnesses shall be allowed in the taxing of a bill.

(12) For the purposes of the taxation of a bill, a folio comprises 72 words, and a figure representing a total amount shall be counted as one word.

(13) Where, in a document, reference is made to -

- (a) a date and the ordinal number of the day of the month or the year and it is not written in figures; or
- (b) an amount of money and the amount is not written in figures and symbols, the words in the reference shall be reckoned as figures or figures and symbols, as the case may be, for the purpose of calculating the number of folios in the document.

(14) Where the amount of a fee or allowance is discretionary, the Registrar, in the exercise of his discretion, shall take into consideration -

- (a) the other fees and allowances of the legal practitioner and counsel (if any) in respect of the work to which such a fee or allowance applies;
- (b) the nature and importance of the proceeding;
- (c) the amount involved;
- (d) the interest of the parties;

Work Health Court Rules

(e) the general conduct and costs of the proceeding;
and

(f) the other circumstances of the particular case.

(15) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Rules, where the Registrar is of the opinion that the amount that would otherwise be allowed in respect of an item in a bill is, in the circumstances of the particular case, inadequate having regard to the nature or amount of the work performed to which the item relates, he may allow such larger amount, not exceeding 100% of the Supreme Court scale for that item, as he considers reasonable.

(16) For work and labour performed and not specifically provided for by these Rules but which, in the opinion of the Registrar, was necessarily and properly performed, the Registrar shall allow an amount which he, in his discretion, considers reasonable.

(17) Where it was necessary for a legal practitioner to travel from his place of business in connection with a matter for which a fee is allowed on taxation of the legal practitioner's bill, the Registrar may, if no other allowance has been made, allow such additional amount as he considers reasonable in respect of the expense incurred by the legal practitioner in so travelling and of his residential accommodation (if any) while living away from his home residence, together with such further amount as compensation for his absence from his place of business in respect of each day that he is so absent.

(18) Where a bill has been taxed, the Registrar shall, if the person by whom the bill was filed furnishes to him a certificate of taxation in accordance with Form 17 relating to the bill, sign and seal the certificate and return it to that person.

(19) A person who lodges a bill for taxation shall, on the issue to him of a certificate of taxation in relation to the bill, serve the certificate of taxation on the person liable to pay the costs or charges.

(20) Subject to these Rules, a party whose bill is being taxed is entitled to have allowed by the Registrar all disbursements that, in the opinion of the Registrar, have been properly incurred.

(21) For the purposes of subrule (20), the Registrar may decline to allow a disbursement unless payment is proved by the production of vouchers or receipts in respect of the payment or is otherwise proved to the satisfaction of the Registrar.

(22) Subject to subrules (20) and (21), the Registrar may, on the taxation of a bill of costs, allow such amounts in respect of fees paid to counsel as he considers reasonable in the circumstances.

Work Health Court Rules

(23) Where a hearing, whether or not at which witnesses are examined or cross-examined, extends beyond the day on which the hearing began, the Registrar may allow such refresher fees as he considers reasonable in the circumstances in respect of each 5 hours or part thereof, including any luncheon adjournment, of the hearing that occurs -

- (a) on a day subsequent to the day on which the hearing began; and
- (b) subsequent to the expiration of the first 5 hours, including any luncheon adjournment, beyond which the hearing is extended without being concluded.

(24) Where a legal practitioner acts in the capacities of both counsel and solicitor, or in the capacity of counsel instructed by his partner acting as solicitor, the Registrar shall, in cases where a fee would have been allowed to independent counsel, allow to that legal practitioner in respect of -

- (a) the drawing or settling of a document; or
- (b) his appearance as counsel at the hearing, the full fee which would have been allowed to independent counsel.

(25) The cost of counsel attending otherwise at a hearing for a formal determination of issues between parties shall not be allowed unless the Court certifies it to be a proper case for counsel to attend.

(26) Where, on a taxation of a bill, the amount of the professional charges contained in the bill is reduced by 20%, costs shall not be allowed for the legal practitioner leaving the bill for taxation for drawing, engrossing and copying it or for attending the taxation and the Registrar may award the costs of and incidental to the taxation to the party or parties appearing at the taxation.

(27) Each party shall bear their own costs in an interlocutory application in a proceeding unless the Court otherwise orders or these Rules otherwise provide.

(28) An appeal from a decision of the Registrar in respect of the taxation of a bill may be instituted within 21 days after the day on which the Registrar signs a certificate of taxation in relation to that bill by filing an interlocutory application seeking an appointment with a magistrate to review the taxation of the bill .

(29) A person who appeals against the allowing or disallowing of an item in a bill shall specify that item in the application by which he institutes the appeal.

Work Health Court Rules

(30) An application appealing against the taxation of a bill shall be heard and determined by a magistrate.

(31) Where a legal practitioner for a party, whether personally or through a servant or agent, has caused costs to be incurred improperly or without reasonable cause or to be wasted by undue delay or negligence or by any other misconduct or default, the Court may, on the interlocutory application of a party or of its own motion, make an order that -

- (a) all or any of the costs between the legal practitioner and the client be disallowed or that the legal practitioner repay to the client the whole or part of any money paid on account of costs;
- (b) the legal practitioner pay to his client all or any of the costs which the client has been ordered to pay to a party; or
- (c) the legal practitioner pay all or any of the costs payable by a party other than the client.

(32) Without limiting subrule (31), a legal practitioner is in default for the purpose of that subrule where an application cannot conveniently be heard or proceed, or fails or is adjourned without any useful progress being made, by reason of the failure of the legal practitioner to -

- (a) attend in person or by a proper representative;
- (b) file a document which ought to have been filed;
- (c) lodge or deliver a document for the use of the Court which ought to have been lodged or delivered;
- (d) be prepared with proper evidence or an account; or
- (e) otherwise proceed.

(33) The Court shall not make an order under subrule (31) without giving the legal practitioner a reasonable opportunity to be heard.

(34) The Court may, before making an order under subrule (31), refer the matter to the Registrar for inquiry and report.

(35) The Court may order that notice of a proceeding or order against a legal practitioner under this rule be given to the client in such manner as it directs.

Work Health Court Rules

(2) The Court has power at any time to correct a clerical mistake or error in a decision arising from an accidental slip or omission.

32. DECISION BY CONSENT

(1) If the parties to an application are legally represented and they express their agreement before the Court and consent to the Court making a decision in accordance with agreed terms, the Court may proceed to decide the application on the terms as agreed.

(a) shall be expressed to be a decision by consent; and
