* Notified in the Northern Territory Government Gazette on 11 July, 1984.

Jabiru Town Development (Control of Dogs) By-laws

- (a) every road, street, footway, court, alley or thoroughfare which the public is allowed to use, notwithstanding that the road, street, footway, court, alley or thoroughfare may be formed on private property; and
- (b) a road, park or other area of land dedicated in accordance with section 25(1) of the Act;

"town area of Jabiru" means the area administered by the Authority.

(2) For the purposes of these By-laws, a person keeps a dog if he has custody or possession of the dog or if the dog, as a result of action taken by him, is ordinarily kept on his land.

3. CONSENT TO BE OBTAINED

A person shall not keep a controlled dog in the town area of Jabiru unless he has obtained consent from the Director under regulation 7(7)(b) of the National Parks and Wildlife Regulations.

Penalty: $200.

4. DOG TO BE KEPT ON LEASH

A person shall, at all times, keep a controlled dog in a public place on a leash or under effective control.

Penalty: $200.
